

Using Court Records

Many of the county records available consist of court records. The following guide provides an overview of what kinds of information you might glean from different types of court records at different times.

- 1796 - 1808 Any minor matter -- Court of Common Pleas & Quarter Sessions
Any larger matter & all appeals -- Superior Court of Law & Equity
- 1809 - 1834 Any minor matter -- Court of Pleas
Larger law cases -- Circuit Court
Larger equity cases -- Supreme Court (see 1822-1834 also)
Appeals of law cases -- Supreme Court
- 1822 - 1824 Larger equity cases -- Chancery Division of Supreme Court
- 1824 - Now Business matters (not only disputes) -- County Court
Any law case -- Circuit Court (which divided into Civil & Criminal courts in some places after 1847. Criminal heard "State" cases and Civil heard cases between individuals.)
Any equity case -- Chancery Court
Appeals of all cases -- Supreme Court

Types of Cases Heard in the Courts after 1834

County Court: Appointment of administrators and guardians; reports of same; wills proved; widow's provisions laid off; road crews appointed; apprentices bound; wildcat/wolf bounties paid; individual receiving government assistance; taxes adjusted.

Circuit Court: (Heard cases of LAW -- where laws had been broken and guilt or innocence was to be decided.) Civil Cases include debt, divorce, assault. State/Criminal Cases include theft, gambling, fighting, murder, "bastardy."

Chancery Court: (Heard cases of EQUITY -- disputes in which court had to decide what would be fair to all parties.) Estate disputes; land and slave ownership disputes; business partnership dissolutions; division of property in divorces; incompetency rebuttals; claims against public officials.
