Historical note: Tom Foote (also known as "Reverend" Thomas Foote) is an artist, creator of the zine "Spare Change," musician, and active member of the DIY community in Chattanooga. Foote held shows in his basement venue, Antarchtica.

Scope and content: The collection consists of flyers and posters for local rock and punk shows in Chattanooga, Tennessee, circa 1997-2018, collected by Tom Foote. Flyers are from shows at Antarchtica and other Chattanooga-area venues, including Sluggo's, Ziggy's, JJ's Bohemia, Rear Entry, and Father Abraham's. Frequently promoted bands include One Timers, ADD/C, Ghetto Bird, Tuff Tits, Future Virgins, and Possible Side Effects, among many others. Also included are posters for festivals such as Do Ya Hear We punk fest and Zine Fest, and flyers for other events such as parties, protests, Critical Mass bike rides, potlucks, and fundraisers.

Arrangement: Items arranged as recieved by donor. The Inventory groups items into two series, "Shows" and "Other events", however items are physically arranged in numeric order by Item #.

Provenance: Gift of Thomas L. Foote, 29 March 2018.

Access information: Collection is open for access.

Use information: Copyright is retained by the authors of items in these papers, or their descendants, as stipulated by United States copyright law. Copying or scanning of materials to be performed by staff.

Alternative form available: Entire collection has been digitized; view online at the Chattanooga Punk Archive website: <https://collections.chattlibrary.org/s/punkarchive/item-set/11>

Preferred citation: [Identification of item], Tom Foote punk posters collection (Acc. 435). Chattanooga Public Library.

Processing note: All items were inventoried and scanned in 2018 by Matthew Conant. Collection processed in 2022 by Suzette Raney. Items were maintained sleeved in binders as recieved, and sleeves were numbered according to numbering used in inventory.
